

California School for the Deaf, Riverside

Title IX Intake / Incident Report Form

The California School for the Deaf, Riverside (CSDR) is committed to providing a safe, inclusive, and equitable learning environment for all students and staff. CSDR does not discriminate, harass, intimidate, or bully on the basis of actual or perceived characteristics including sex, gender, gender identity, gender expression, sexual orientation, race, ethnicity, religion, disability, or any other characteristic protected under federal or California law. Consistent with Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972, CSDR does not discriminate on the basis of sex in any of its education programs or activities. Sexual harassment and sexual violence are forms of sex discrimination and are strictly prohibited. CSDR complies with all applicable state and federal laws, including California Education Code sections 200–220 and 221.5, which protect students from discrimination based on gender identity and gender expression. Inquiries regarding Title IX, including reports of sex discrimination or harassment, may be directed to CSDR's Title IX Coordinator.
